Christopher Columbus

Columbus said, "Sail on! sail on!"

October 12, 1492.

Ruth wrote this story about Columbus. Can you read it?

Columbus discovered this country. Columbus said that the world is round, but the people did not believe it. He went all over to see if any one would give him some ships. Queen Isabella helped him. He had a hard time to get sailors. They were afraid to go so far out on the sea, but he got here on October 12, 1492.

What can you write about Columbus?

We travel here and there,
On land, on water and in air.
We ride, we sail,
We fly and glide.
O'er cities, hills and oceans wide.

When We Plant A Tree.

What do we plant when we plant a tree?

We plant a home that is to be,

A ship to sail across the sea,

A desk, a chair, a book maybe,

These we plant when we plant a tree.

What do we plant when we plant a tree?

Beauty and joy for all to see,

A home for birds to bide a wee,

Grateful shade for you and me,

These we plant when we plant a tree.

Some Indians live in the forest.

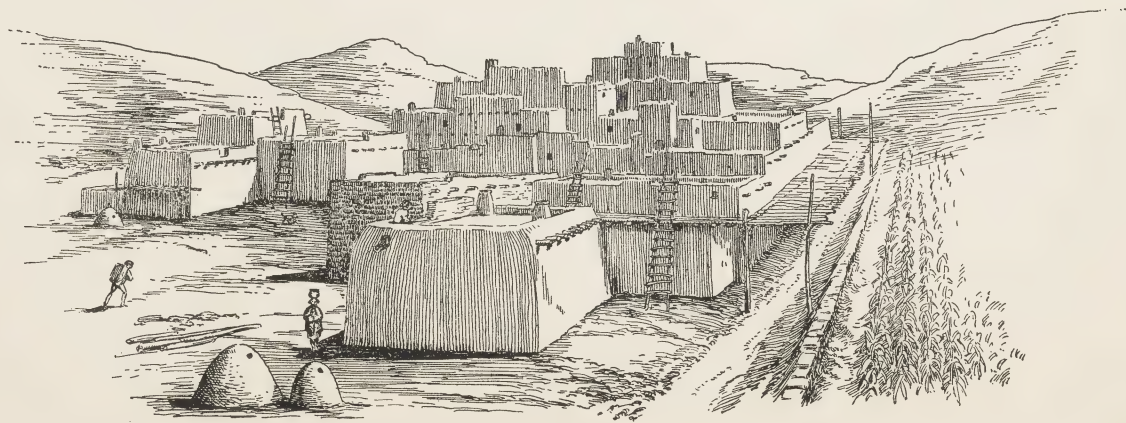

Some Indians live on the prairie.

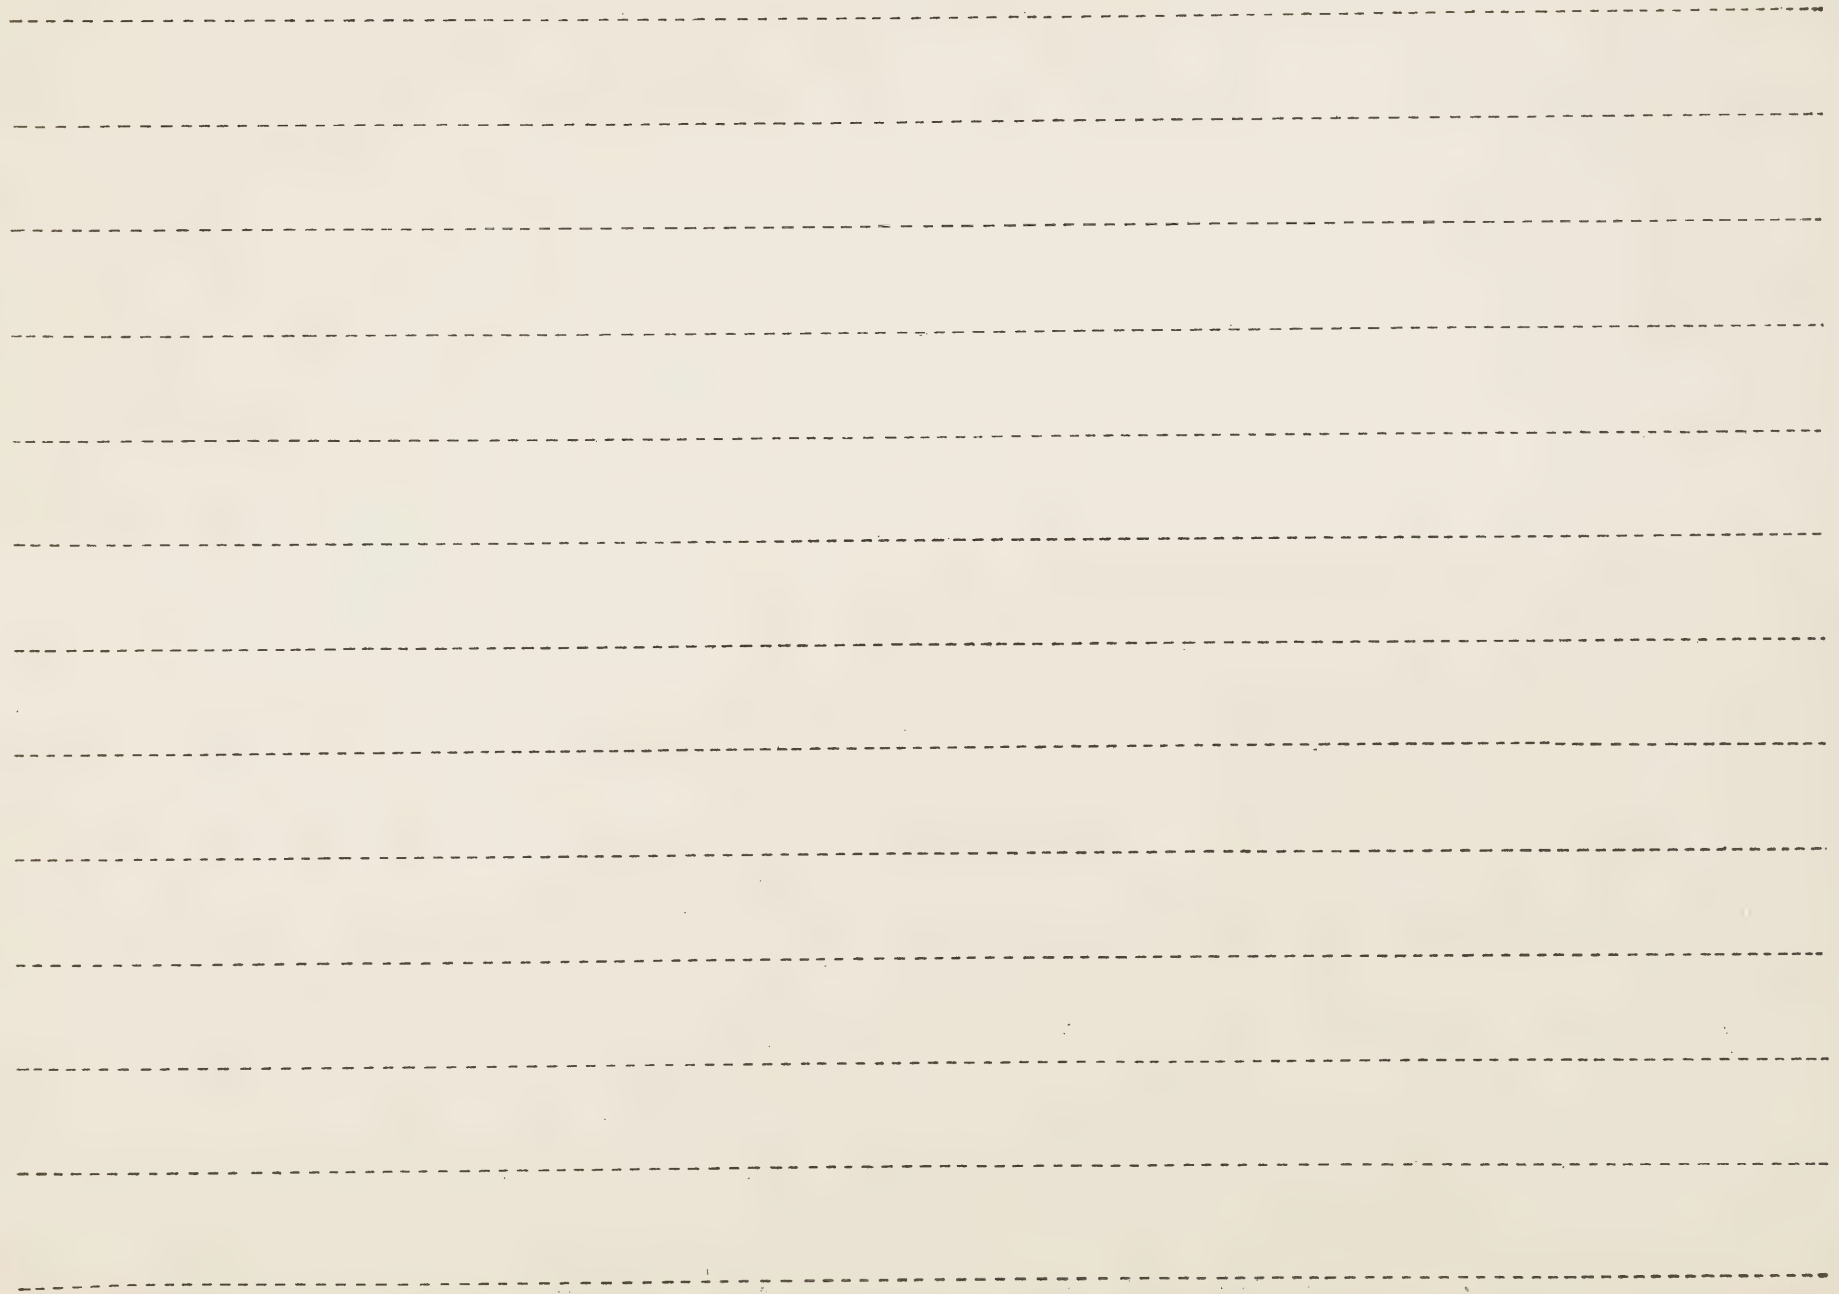

Some Indians live in wigwams.

The wigwam is made of mats or skins.

Some Indians live in a pueblo. The pueblo is made of clay, stone and trunks of trees. Many families live in a pueblo. They use a ladder to get into their house.

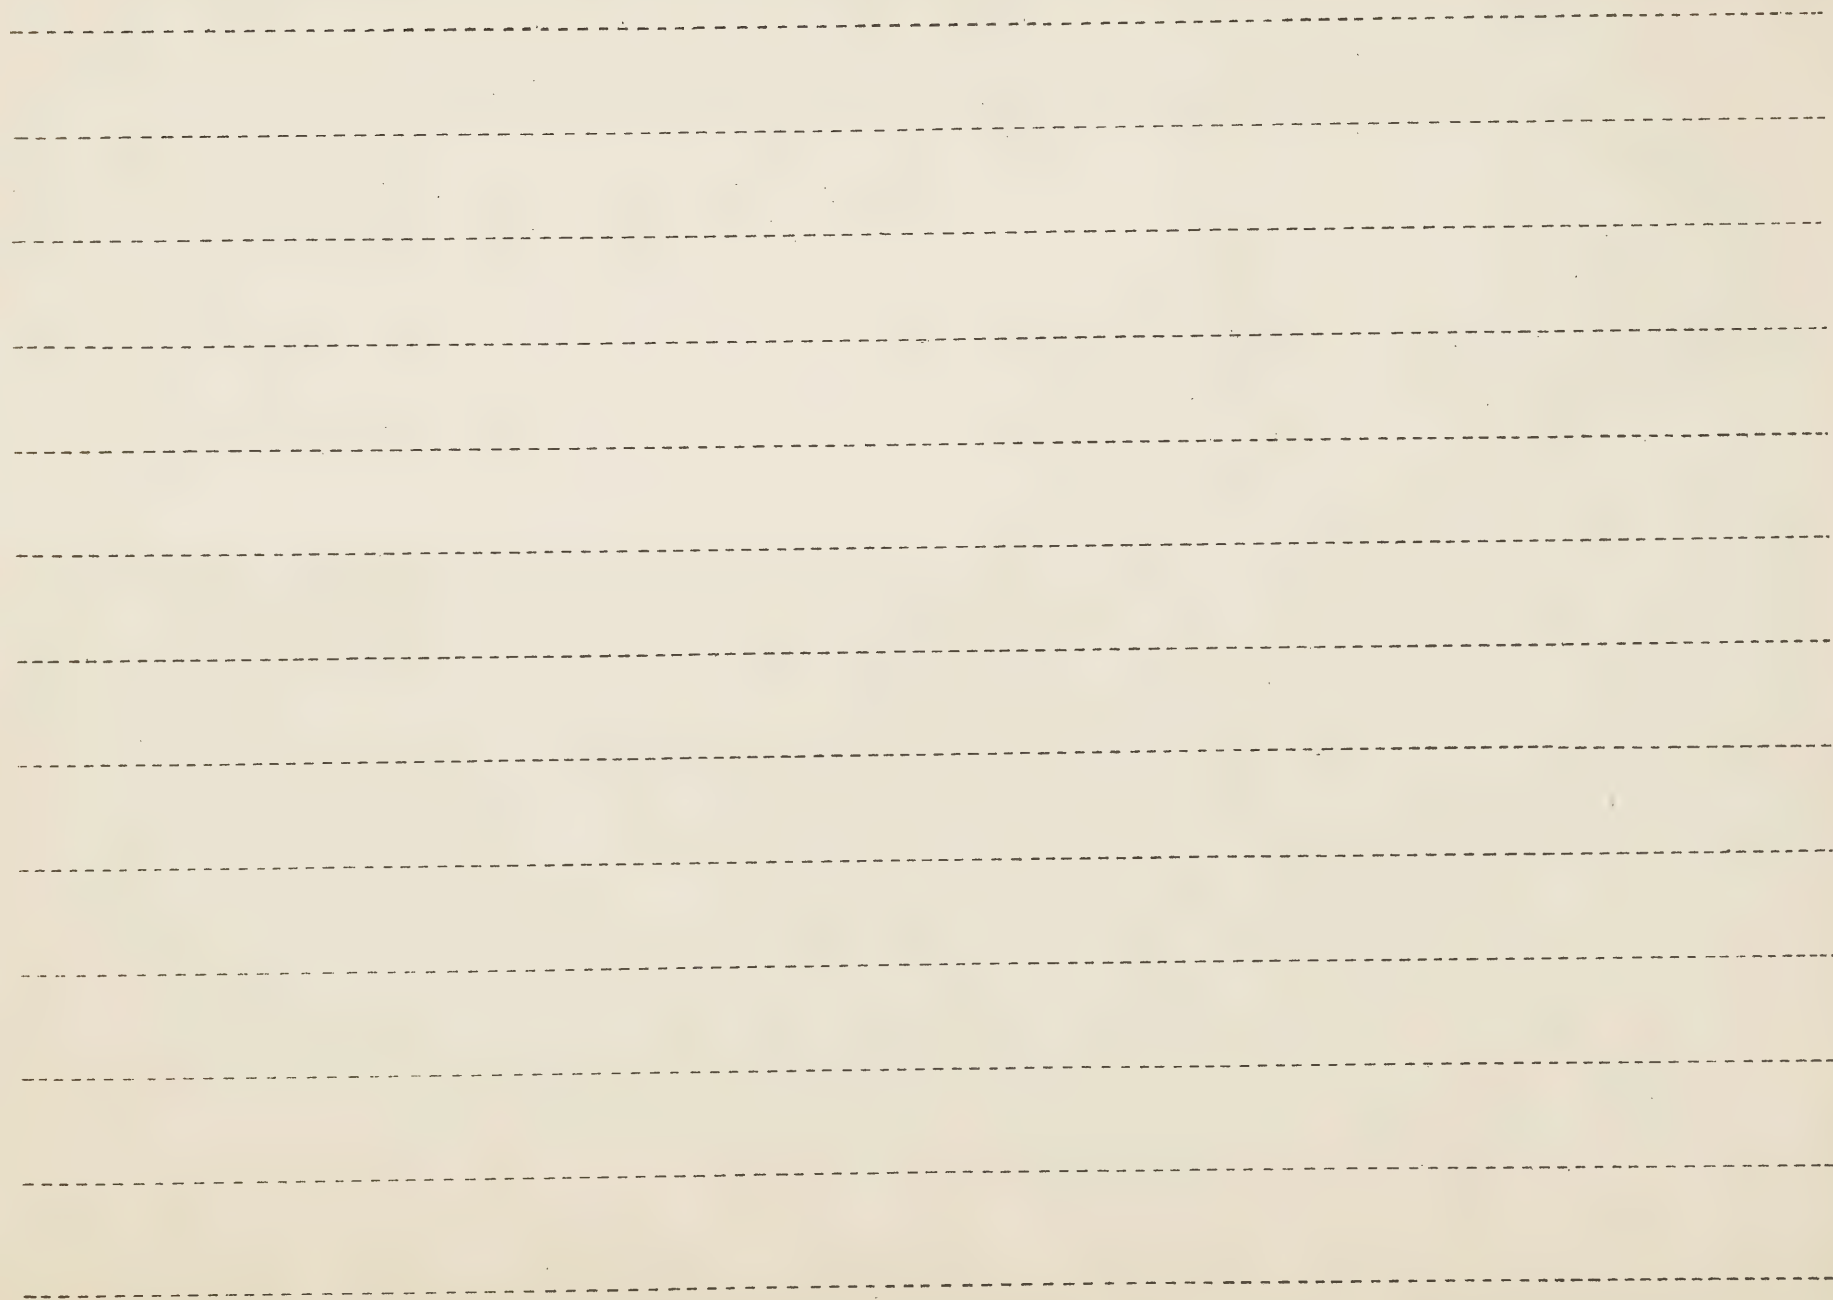

Indian Papoose.
Oh, come my little
Indian baby,
Oh, come to mother dear.
Your shiny eyes
And browny skin –
Come, come here.

Hiawatha was a little Indian boy. His grandmother taught him about birds and animals. Longfellow wrote a poem about Hiawatha. On the two following pages is that part of the poem which tells what Hiawatha learned from the birds and animals.

Then the little Hiawatha
Learned of every bird its language,
Learned their names and all their secrets,
How they built their nests in summer,
Where they hid themselves in winter.
Talked with them whene'er he met them.
Called them "Hiawatha's Chickens."

Of the beasts he learned the language,
Learned their names and all their secrets,
How the beavers built their lodges,
Where the squirrels hid their acorns,
How the reindeer ran so swiftly,
Why the rabbit was so timid,
Talked with them whene'er he met them,
Called them "Hiawatha's Brothers."
